San Diego May Spread to Border

City Will Call Vote Despite Threats of Chula Vista Suit

SAN DIEGO. April 15 (AP)—The City Council today declared its intention of calling a special annexation election that would extend the city limits to the Mexican border.

It acted within an hour after a petition, bearing 991 signatures of South Bay area residents, was presented to the City Clerk. He said 600 names would have been sufficient.

May 6 Hearing

The Council set a hearing for May 6 on the proposal.

The city of Chula Vista, which has sought to annex a corridor that could block San Diego's expansion to the south, has threatened court action. The area proposed for annexation to San Diego covers 22 square miles and includes Palm City, Nestor, farm lands in the Tijuana River Valley, San Ysidro and Otay Mesa.

WATER ISSUES IN SAN YSIDRO STARTED THE IDEA OF ANNEXATION, BUT SAN DIEGO WANTED TO DISSOLVE SAN YSIDRO INTO ITSELF SO IT COULD HAVE A STAKE IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE.
